WHAT EXPERIENCE DO I NEED?

Please note that to complete this unit you must be working and/or volunteering within a registered service that educates and cares for children and young people

WHAT ARE MY STUDY OPTIONS?

CELA offers this individual unit through three modes of delivery

► Face-to-face workshops

Learners will attend 6 hours of face-to-face training either at the CELA training facility in Marrickville or choose their own workplace for this unit to be delivered. Students will then complete up to 30 hours of assessment in their workplace.

► Webinar

Learners can book into scheduled webinars, found on the CELA Learning and Development Training Calendar. Learners will then participate in online activities and work place-based assessment to meet unit requirements.

► Self Paced Online

Learners can enrol into the self paced online delivery at any time. They will participate in a blend of webinars, online activities and work place-based assessment.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

This unit covers the skills and knowledge required to support and protect children and young people who are at risk of harm. This work occurs within legislative and policy frameworks and carries a duty of care responsibility.

Learners will cover the following elements:

- Implement work practices which support the protection of children and young people
- Report indications of possible risk of harm
- Apply ethical and nurturing practices in work with children and young people
